

Writing Center

WRITING CENTER

We offer free writing consultations for all members of the LAU community.

Undergraduate and graduate students from any discipline and at any level of skill are welcome to share their texts with writing tutors. Texts may include academic essays, research papers, resumes, and curriculum vitae, among others.

SERVICES

Tutors in the Writing Center are trained to work individually with undergraduate and graduate writers to provide support during the composing process. In a Writing Center session, we might discuss

- Developing and connecting ideas
- Crafting a thesis statement
- Revising
- Structuring an argument
- Documenting sources
- Editing

MISSION AND GOALS

In line with the LAU Mission, the LAU Writing Center is devoted to academic excellence and student-centeredness.

The Center aims at improving student writing through individual tutoring and workshops; at enhancing writing across the curriculum; at helping students develop as more thoughtful, independent, and rhetorically effective writers; and at promoting a general culture of writing at the University.

Come to the LAU

Writing Center

Simply walk in or email/call to make a one-hour appointment.

All are Welcome!

